HYMN

“The King of Love my Shepherd is”
Tune: Dominus regit me J.B. Dykes

The King of love my shepherd is,
whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am his
and he is mine for ever.

Where streams of living water flow
my ransomed soul he leadeth,
and where the verdant pastures grow
with food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
but yet in love he sought me,
and on His shoulder gently laid,
and home rejoicing brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill
with thee, dear Lord, beside me.
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
thy cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
thy unction grace bestoweth;
and O what transport of delight
from thy pure chalice floweth!

And so through all the length of days
thy goodness faileth never:
Good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise within thy house for ever.

My Joseph.

For over forty years now I have worked alongside my boys. Or more particularly my brothers. And the wives. And the Narrators. And my Josephs. And his dad – and his Pharaoh.

There are few that I haven't loved. There are many that I remember with the utmost affection. The stories of the Joseph tours are beyond compare. The love that they generate is legendary...

It helped change my life.

They all helped change my life.

But every team has to have a leader. Every company has to have a main man. The very best of Josephs weren't actors who flaunted their position as top of the bill, but artists who would lead from the front – on and off the stage - more often than not for twelve shows a week!

My boy Richard led from the front. In everything he did. He took notes like a dream – and a smile – like John Marvin he always found his light – especially downstage centre! He wore the costumes as they were meant to be worn – especially those tight gold trousers!! And he became the Joseph that all of the others looked up to. Twelve shows a week!!!

Okay, he had his moments!!!! Who of us doesn't? (12 shows a week??!!) But they soon ended with a smile and a flash of those teeth. And maybe a finger or five through that magnificent blonde quiff...

But on top of the fact that he was loved by his fans, by the critics, and by those who gave him a standing ovation every night – he was simply the loveliest lad!

I have obviously been close to his other half (Steaders to all who know and love him also) throughout Richard's illness. David's constant 'I can't believe how strong and upbeat he is...' punctuated every conversation. And there were many.

And he WAS strong. And he was clever. And, not just for today, not just while he wore the coat, but throughout the time I knew him, he was 'amazing'.

I am looking at his photos as I write this – other shows too but - mainly Joseph - alongside Henry, Peter Lawrence, his narrators, his brothers, his Elvis's. They are such magnificent memories, that will stay with me forever. As will Richard.

Everyone who knows me, knows that I love David Steadman. Another lad who seems to have been with me since the start of my career – almost. My arm is around him, and his beloved Richard, as they part briefly today. But not forever.

We start rehearsing our fortieth anniversary Joseph in one week's time. The 'flash of light' will not be as bright for a while – but it 'will return' as Richard would want it to.

'Children of Israel Are Never Alone.'

Good night, God bless, Sweet Richard.
